

TWSR WINE REVIEW

News

Wine tour aids Laotian charity

UK In January 2010, American Georges Janssens (24) and Dutch woman Anja Cheriakova (23) will embark on a year-long tour of the world's wineries in aid of the Laos-based humanitarian charity Lao Rehabilitation Foundation.

The duo hope to raise US$150,000. Sponsored by JF Hillebrand and Robert Mondavi Winery, Janssens and Cheriakova will visit wineries in 15 countries. All wineries are invited to participate in the charity mission by donating fine wine.

The Lao Rehabilitation Foundation will use all money raised to rebuild a Laotian school destroyed by floods in 2008. Full details can be found at www.worldwinetour2010.com.